NARRATIVE:

Black, a documented gang member, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include carrying a loaded firearm in public, possession of marijuana for sale, felon in possession of a loaded firearm, carrying a concealed weapon, and absconding from supervision. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a two (2) year term for carrying a loaded firearm in public. Black was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 20th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Black qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for felon in possession of a firearm is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, status as a gang member, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
